In accordance with applicable regulation the Board of Directors proposes that the Annual General Meeting decide that the amount of variable remuneration paid to a person employed by Evli may exceed 100 percent of the total fixed annual remuneration of the person, subject to the conditions described below. However, the variable remuneration component shall not exceed 200 percent of the total annual fixed remuneration of the recipient.

In accordance with the proposal, an individual's short-term (one-year earnings criterion) variable remuneration may not exceed 100 percent of an individual's annual fixed remuneration. However, the combination of short-term variable remuneration and long-term commitment plan payments may exceed 100 percent of the individual's annual fixed remuneration. However, the aggregate of short-term variable remuneration and long-term commitment plan payments may not exceed 200 percent of the individual's annual fixed remuneration.

The maximum variable remuneration applies to the remuneration of approximately thirty (30) persons, that is, senior management and certain key personnel. The variable remuneration is not used to compensate the Board of Directors. The maximum variable remuneration applies until further notice.

Background

Under chapter 8 section 7 of the Credit Institutions Act applicable to Evli, the proportion of variable remuneration shall not exceed 100 percent of the total fixed remuneration of an individual, unless the General Meeting decides otherwise. The General Meeting shall not, however, approve a proportion of variable remuneration greater than 200 percent of the total fixed remuneration.

The proposal is based on the main elements of the remuneration model applied by Evli:

- a competitive fixed basic salary constitutes a solid foundation for maintaining and constantly developing basic functions;
- a variable remuneration in accordance with the annual remuneration plan approved by the Board of Directors to promote both Evli's short-term growth objectives and the attainment of its strategic targets;
- long-term incentive programs to support the company's strategic development and to commit key employees to the company's business operations.
